

February 28th, 2011

Dear Valued Customers:

Relocation of NCA Cargo Handling Facilities in Narita, Japan.

This is to announce that NCA is relocating all cargo handling facilities from North Cargo Area where we are currently based to South Cargo Area in Narita International Airport (NRT).

Relocation is scheduled from May 3rd - 5th, 2011.

[Flight Operations during relocation period]

In order to carry out smooth transition NCA plans to cancel all flights into and out of NRT during relocation period. (May 3rd - 5th, 2011).

[Delivery of Import Cargo at NRT]

Delivery of import cargos which arrived before and on May 2nd, 2011 (MON) will be brought in and delivered at IACT, our current import warehouse vendor, in North Cargo Area.

The import cargos arrived on and after May 6th, 2011 (FRI) will be delivered at our new import warehouse (South Cargo Bldg #3 + #4) in South Cargo Area.

The delivery service of import cargos at IACT will be provided during relocation period.

[Acceptance of Export Cargo at NRT]

Please kindly be notified that there will be no accepting service of export cargo during relocation period.

The final cut-off of export cargos at current export warehouse (North Cargo Bldg #1 + #2) in North Cargo Area will be at 21:00 on May 2nd, 2011 (MON).

NCA will start accepting export cargos at new export warehouse (South Cargo Bldg #5 + #6) in South Cargo Area at 06:00 on May 06th, 2011 (FRI).

We are looking forward to serving you at our new facilities in South Cargo Area.

Yours Sincerely,

Kuniaki Inaoka
General Manager, Traffic Dept.
Nippon Cargo Airlines