Nippon Cargo Airlines extends eBookings via cargo.one to North America

Nippon Cargo Airlines (NCA) and cargo.one celebrate 4 years of partnership by extending the offering to cover trans-pacific from North America to Japan and Asia from November 12th.

US freight forwarders are now able to create instantly confirmed bookings through cargo.one — 24 hours a day, 7 days a week — freeing up the time from many exchanging email and phone calls or waiting for booking confirmation.

If you have not registered yet, please sign-up and get started to make your bookings for our flights from North America via cargo.one.

More information about cargo.one digital freight solutions is available at cargo.one/kz

By pursuing digitalization and improving convenience, NCA continues to improve the experience delivered to its customers.
